

Global history and governance
PhD Courses and Workshops
2019-2020

First Term
(November 2019—February 2020)

Courses

- Olindo De Napoli (University of Naples, Federico II), Pasquale Palmieri (University of Naples, Federico II), The Politics of Difference: Empires, Citizenship, Communication (4, 11, 18, 25 November, 2, 9, 16 December, 19, 20 February)
- Teodoro Tagliaferri (University of Naples, Federico II), The New Global Past: Historiographical Background, Methodological Issues, General Outlines (5, 12, 19, 26 November, 3, 10, 17 December, 17, 18 February)
- Angela Ferrari Zumbini (University of Naples, Federico II), Introduction to global law. Constitutional, Administrative and Private Legal Perspectives (7, 14, 21, 28 November, 5, 12, 19 December, 16, 23 January)

Research Workshop

- Massimo Osanna (University of Naples, Federico II), Il mosaico di Orione dalla casa di Giove nella Regio V a Pompei (13 November)
- Richard Evans (University of Cambridge), Teodoro Tagliaferri (University of Naples, Federico II), Davide Grippa (Università Orientale, Naples), Roundtable: Writing Eric Hobsbawm's biography (14 November)
- Jean-Bernard Auby (Sciences-Po, Paris), Inauguration: What is it that we can call Globalization and Globalization of Law? (25 November)
- Andrea Tarchi (Amsterdam University), Intimità 'miste' nei primi anni della colonizzazione italiana della Libia: prostituzione e concubinaggio in una colonia militarizzata (4 December)
- Dmtar Tasić (University College Dublin) and Cigdem Oguz (University of Bologna), War and citizenship: Serbia and the Ottoman Empire in Comparative Perspective (11 December)

- Giuseppe Marcocci (Oxford University), Empire and the politics of difference in the Iberic World: 1450-1700 (18 December)
- Tamara Scheer (Universität Wien), Language and Loyalty in the Habsburg Army, 1868-1914: The Case of the Italian Speaking Army Officers and Recruits (29 January)

Multiday Workshops

- Federico Martellozzo (Univ. Firenze), An overview of GIS and spatial analysis for social sciences: decoding the past to understand the future (15, 16 January)
- Alessandro Stanziani (EHESS, Paris), Legal pluralism and global studies (17, 18, 19 February)

Soft Skills

- Roberto Delle Donne (University of Naples, Federico II), Introduction to the digital library (5 November)
- Olindo De Napoli (University of Naples, Federico II), Digital Resources (History) (6 November)
- Angela Ferrari Zumbini (University of Naples, Federico II), Digital Resources (Law) (6 November)
- Domenico Cecere (University of Naples, Federico II), How to write a research project
- Diego Carnevale (University of Naples, Federico II), Opportunities for young researchers: the Marie Skłodowska-Curie fellowships (27, 28 November)
- Daniela Luigia Caglioti (University of Naples, Federico II), Research methodology and bibliographic software (reference managers) – Writing and publishing an article in a peer-reviewed journal (16 December)

Global history and governance

Second Term

(March–November 2020)

Courses

- Andrea Graziosi (University of Naples, Federico II), Political Famines in the 20th century (3, 24, 31 March, 7, 21, 28 April, 5 May)
- Giovanna Cigliano (University of Naples, Federico II), Adriano Roccucci (Università Roma Tre), Antonella Salomoni (University of Bologna), Storia russa e sovietica in prospettiva globale (e) imperiale (19, 20, 26, 31 March, 7, 17, 21, 23, 30 April, 7 May)
- Daniela Luigia Caglioti (University of Naples, Federico II), Citizens, foreigners and stateless people: rights, migration and border redefinition in nineteenth and twentieth-century Europe and in North America (3, 17, 30 April, 8, 15 May)

Research Workshop

- Simona Merlo (Università di Roma Tre), L'Ucraina della Perestrojka (4 March)
- Niccolò Pianciola (Lingnan University, Hong Kong), Overlapping Empires in the Chinese-Russian Borderlands: Opium Trade, Migrations, and Violence, 1890s-1930s (11 May)

Multiday Workshops

- Mauro Calise (University of Naples, Federico II) and Fortunato Musella (University of Naples, Federico II), Concept Analysis in the Web Environment (22, 29 April, 5 May)
- Giacinto della Cananea (Università Bocconi, Milano), Due process in global law: problems and perspectives (6, 7, 8 May)

Soft Skills

- Valentina Reda (Federica Web Learning), Digital Resources: Political Sciences (18 March)