NEW APPROACHES TO NINETEENTH-CENTURY REVOLUTIONS

Respatializations, Global Circulations, and Imperial Entanglements

Le Marché, Frédéric Sorrieu, 1848

21 – 22 MAY 2026

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP
Scuola Superiore Meridionale (SSM)
Global History and Governance (GHG)

THURSDAY 21 MAY 2026 Venue: SSM, Largo San Marcellino 10, 3rd floor, room 3

3.30 pm – 4 pm Institutional Welcome by Professor Daniela Luigia Caglioti (Director of the Global History and Governance program at the SSM)

4 pm – 5.20 pm Panel 1: *Across the Ocean and Back: Transatlantic Political Cultures in an Age of Turmoil
Chair: Carla Andrés Bauzá (Universitat Pompeu Fabra – UPF)
Elisavet Papalexopoulou (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens): "'Our Beloved Greek Sisters...': Philhellenism, Religion, and Empire"
Alessandro Bonvini (Università di Salerno): "From Colonos to Revolutionaries: Atlantic Radicalism in the Empire of Brazil, ca. 1835–1845"

5.40 pm – 7 pm Panel 2: *The Revolutionary Self: Life-Stories Across the Mediterranean
Chair: Ignacio García de Paso (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid – UAM)
Florencia Peyrou (UAM): "An Outburst of Southern Imagination: A Middle-Class Revolutionary in Action in the Mid-Nineteenth Century"
Daniel Banks (SSM – GHG): "Landlord, Settler, Revolutionary, Spy: Personal Trajectories in a Changing Mediterranean World"

FRIDAY 22 MAY 2026 Venue: SSM, Largo San Marcellino 10, 3rd floor, room 2

9 am – 11 am Panel 3: *New Lexicons: Unsettling Assumptions in an Age of Transformations
Chair: Marco Meriggi (Università di Napoli Federico II)
Björn Johnsen (European University Institute): "'While Other People Sacrifice the Blood of their Truest Hearts': How Network Radicalism Shaped a Scandinavian 1848"
Lucy Riall (European University Institute / Tokyo College): "'I Don't Know where the Devil He Is, nor how Long He will Take to Come Back': Alternative Perspectives on the Revolutions of 1848–1849"
Juan Luis Simal (UAM): "Debt Bonds as Revolutionary Objects in the Nineteenth-Century Euro-American World"

11.30 am – 1.30 pm Panel 4: *Undisciplined Histories: New Ways of Understanding Subversion
Chair: Elisavet Papalexopoulou (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens)
Maurizio Isabella (Queen Mary University of London): "Islam in the Age of Revolutions, 1800–1860 ca."
Jeanne Moisand (Université Paris Nanterre): "Women, Conscription, and the Imperial Revolution (Spain, 1868–1878)" [online]
Carla Andrés Bauzá (UPF): "Insurgency and Marronage: Black Women, Fugitivity, and the Military Archive in Cuba's Ten Years' War, 1868–1878"

3 pm – 5 pm Panel 5: *Reframing Imperial Networks: For and Against
Chair: Olindo De Napoli (Università di Napoli Federico II)
Ignacio García de Paso (UAM): "A Land without Politics? Empire-Building and Counterrevolution in the Philippines (1848–1849)"
Stephen Jacobson (UPF): "The Buenos Aires Revolution of 1852: An Empire Project"
Laura Díaz Esteve (Spanish National Research Council): "The First Philippine Republic and the Foundation of the Red Cross (1899–1901)" [online]

5.15 pm – 6.30 pm Roundtable Discussion
Chair: Stefano Poggi (Università di Padova)

SSM
Scuola Superiore Meridionale

UAM

Organizers:
Daniel Banks (SSM – GHG)
Ignacio García de Paso (UAM)
Elisavet Papalexopoulou (NKUA)
Carla Andrés Bauzá (UPF)

Funded by the Global History and Governance Program at the Scuola Superiore Meridionale.
Co-funded by the Spanish research project 'Las clases medias: una historia cultural y transnacional de la era de las revoluciones y el advenimiento de la sociedad posindustrial (MESOC)' (PID2023-148521NB-I00). Agencia Española de Investigación.